FAZtor 's Notes

By Fr. Arnold Zamora

A week ago, Bishop Wang, Fr. Angel and I went to St. Hilary's Church in Tiburon for dinner, upon the invitation of their new pastor, Fr. William Brown. Bishops are given an honorary title of "Doctor of Divinity" and you always see these two letters "D.D." after their names. They are also addressed formally as Your Grace. That day, Bishop Wang was indeed our "D.D." - our Designated Driver. His Grace was so gracious to volunteer to drive us and we were safe in his hands.

Fr. Brown told us that every now and then you see deer in the vicinity, even in the rectory's backyard, running around. With great consideration to these special parishioners, Fr. Brown wrote: "To my DEER Parishioners."

Some weeks ago, we spotted some mice in the Flanagan Center and in the Pastoral Center. The problem has been taken care of and we have not seen anymore, but I think I still need to write to them like Fr. Brown did: "To MICE Dear Parishioners."

You parishioners are all dear to us. We care about you as we care for one another. Whether you are active or inactive parishioners, you are special in our hearts. As a matter of fact, Fr. Angel and I, together with two other parishioners, went to see Cecilia O'Brien, a long time parishioner who is now residing at the Mercy Retirement Center in Oakland and she sends her regards to everyone. Fr. Nick has always been faithful in giving communion to our homebound and sick parishioners, every Sunday and the First Fridays of each month. Sr. Herminia, Carol Elliot, our parish nurse, and all the ministers of communion to the homebound have been doing a great job in ministering to our sick parishioners.

A little girl went to church with her Mother for the first time. She started feeling ill. "Mom," she whispered, "I feel like I'm going to throw-up."

"Go out the front door, then walk to the back of the church and do it behind the bushes. I'll be out shortly."

A few minutes later, as the mother rose to leave, the little girl returned. "Are you feeling better?" asked the mother.

"Yes, and I didn't have to go to the back of the church. They have a box next to the front door that says: 'FOR THE SICK'."

On a serious note, a special prayer will be offered at the Sunday 9:30 AM Mass for our beloved school teacher and vice principal, Linda McCausland who is confined to the hospital right now. Please offer some prayers for her. We are saved in God's hand!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAM

The importance of Catechesis: Ongoing Catechesis deepens a believer's knowledge of Christ and the Church, and helps to integrate the truth of faith into all spheres of life: individual, family, social, economic and political. The aim of post-Baptismal catechesis is to extend and fortify the believer's relationship to Christ and the Church. Through reflection, instruction and prayer, Christians are led to a deeper understanding of an active participation in liturgical worship and a life of charity and justice.

National Directory For Catechesis

Registration for Religious Education will start on August 15th after the 9:30 and 11:30 Masses. It will continue on August 22nd and 29th, after the 9:30 and 11:30 am Masses.

Registration fee:

$40.00 per Student,

$20.00 each additional child in the same family.

First Holy Communion and Confirmation $50.00 per Student.

All students need to be registered to return to class. Baptism Calls us to Service: Christ calls all members of the Church to proclaim God's Kingdom to every generation. All members of the Church are called to engage actively in evangelization.

Evangelization as the ministry of the Word is realized in four stages:

- 1) The proclamation of Christ to the non Baptized, or the non-believer.
- 2) The initial catechesis
- 3) Continual catechesis to deepen and mature faith.
- 4) Pastoral Ministry to those committed to Christ.

The Parish needs Teacher catechists to guarantee a very good program.

The Parish Needs helpers to support our Religious Education Program.

If you feel the call to help and share your faith, please do not hesitate to call Sr. Stella who will be very grateful for your assistance, and which will enable the Parish to have a very strong and solid program. Know also, that the greatest reward will be given to you by the Lord.

The R.C.I.A. Program will also start in September, for those who wish to become Catholic, or to deepen their faith. If you know people who would like to attend or participate in this program please encourage them and invite them to the class.

More details next week.

HOLY NAME CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Holy Name Conservatory of Music offers private lessons in piano, voice, violin & guitar to Holy Name School students, alumni and parishioners. All students are invited to participate in the Conservatory's program of recitals held throughout the year. Private study on a musical instrument is a rewarding endeavor that offers an appreciation for the arts, while teaching a wide range of skills including hand-eye coordination, self-discipline and time management.

Registrations for 2010-2011 are now being accepted. Registering in the Fall applies to the full school year. The fall payment is due with the registration form. Parents will be billed in December for the spring payment. Most students should be able to attend 30 lessons out of the 36- week school year, beginning the week of Monday, August 30, 2010. This number is determined by counting the weeks in the school year and omitting school holidays and field trips. A registration form can be downloaded from our Parish website (www.HolyName-sf.org) or if you want a complete registration packet to be mailed to you, or for more information, please contact Jackie Alcaraz at (415) 664-8590 or by e-mail ([hnp parishsecretary@yahoo.com](mailto:hnp parishsecretary@yahoo.com)).

GIVEN MUCH

"Much will be required of the person entrusted with much" (Luke 12:48). Whew! At least the Lord hasn't entrusted me with much! Thank goodness that the work of the reign of God on earth has been entrusted to somebody else. This must be the "good news" of today's Gospel, right? Wrong!

In the mentality that has come to be known as "keeping up with the Joneses" we can gear ourselves toward a comparison with those who have more or who have been given more, even by God. Unfortunately, nowhere does Jesus say: "Not much will be expected of those who have been given only a little bit." Each of us, in our own way, has been given something, some gift or treasure that we can put toward the work of the reign of God. This is the vocation of Christian discipleship. Perhaps others seem to have been given more; evaluating this is not the disciple's concern. The concern of each of us in the vocation for which we have been chosen is to take what we have been given, and consecrate it for the continued in-breaking of God's kingdom of justice, joy, peace, and beauty. Then will we come to realize that we have indeed been given much. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Good News!

August 8, 2010

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wis 18:6-9 / Heb 11:1-2, 8-19 or 11:1-2, 8-12

Lk 12:32-48 or 12:35-40

Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival.

Jesus is trying to warn people ahead of time:

It's better not to learn things the hard way.

I had a terrific job one summer when I was in high school. I picked up garbage at a state park. We went along the beach and dumped trash cans into a truck. We were outside all day. I made good friends that summer. We were tanned and in great shape.

One day we were given a special job. Weather conditions were right for an undertow. Swimming was dangerous, because the water could drag a person into deep water. We were sent in the truck to the ends of the park to warn everyone to stay out of the water until an all-clear was posted. My friend Jack and I got the message to everyone down our side of the beach, and then we went swimming.

It was exciting at first, testing the elements. But we quickly found that when our legs were caught in deeper currents, we were pulled out farther and farther. Soon we were scared. We managed to inch our way back. By the time we collapsed on the beach, we were completely exhausted and humbled. We had a very new, very deep respect for the power of water and undertows.

We would have been fired if we'd been caught. If my mother had ever found out, she'd have said, "I thought you knew better."

She'd have been right. Actually, before the swim I did know better. After the experience, I knew that I knew better.

And should he come in the second or third watch and Find [his servants] prepared in this way, blessed are [they].

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW

Once a day write on your calendar something you are truly grateful for. Review at the end of the month. Repeat.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

Dear Eleanor,

Thanks for the birthday card. Now that I'm 83 I realize that life is filled with experiences to savor and I'm trying to recognize these moments and cherish them now. I'm reading more and dusting less. I sit in the yard and admire the view without fussing about weeds in the garden. I'm spending more time with my family and friends, and less time doing chores. I'm not "saving" anything: I use the good china and crystal to celebrate every possible event, such as losing a pound, getting the sink unstopped, or the first amaryllis blossom. I put on my favorite perfume every day and wear my good blazer to the market. "Someday" and "one of these days" are losing their grip on my vocabulary. If it's worth seeing or hearing or doing, I want to see and hear and do it now. It's fun to say "Keep the change" to someone, to give a large tip to a person with a dreary job. I've discovered that giving my time and attention to someone in trouble makes me forget my aches and pains, so I signed up as a Saint Vincent de Paul volunteer. I'm trying very hard not to put off, hold back, or save anything that would add laughter and luster to life. It's little things left undone that would make me angry if I knew how limited my hours are: angry that I hadn't written certain letters that I intended to write one of these days; sorry that I didn't tell the people closest to me often enough how much I truly loved them. Every day, every minute, every breath truly is a gift from God. And every morning when I open my eyes, I thank God because life is so wonderful.

Love,
Rose
